

Access to Metropolia's e-mail service canceled temporarily from outside of Finland

Access to Metropolia's e-mail service has been canceled temporarily from outside of Finland due to information security reasons until further notice.

The only way to access your email from outside of Finland is to enable the VPN connection. Take a look at the instructions on the Metropolia IT Services' web site.

You are still able to send e-mail to any country and receive email from any country.